the Navy and Mrs. Daniels, Senator and Mrs. Pomeroy, Commander and Mrs.
Devoport, Miss Redfield and Mr. Arthur C. Frazer of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Lawrence of 1624 K Street northwest celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary yesterday, surrounded by their five sons and daughters, ten grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. The couple received many remembrances from their friends.

Mrs. Gore, wife of Senator Gore, has returned from the west. She will not receive until the first Thursday in January.

Mrs. Beale R. Howard has invitations out for a dance the evening of January 1.

and L. Kirschner.

The debut tea of Miss Margaret Pech-tel, daughter of Capt. A. F. Pechtel, U. S. N., and Mrs. Pechtel, yesterday at the family residence on Ellmore Street, was made doubly happy by the arrival of Mrs. Pechtel's friends, who were entertained at a tea given by the hostess, whose journey across the continent was delayed by snows and whose coming at all in time for the tea seemed very uncertain yesterday morning. Judge and Mrs. Morrow brought their debutante granddaughter, the lovely daughter of the hostess, who was showed bouquet of pale pink roses which she carried. There were scores of other household of choice blossoms around the drawing room and the hall and the dining room, the walls being festooned with green vines, white palms and foliage plants made an appropriate setting for the animated scene, in which so many delightful representatives of capital society took part.

Mrs. Pechtel wore a rich crepe de chêne, with touches of a darker shade in velvet, and bands of skunk fur. Her attractive young daughter was in white and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Mrs.
Morrow wore white with silver and crystal bands and trimmings of point lace. Receiving also with the family group was Mrs. Franklin K. Lane, other assistants of the afternoon were Mrs. Ira

Powhatan Company Takes Title to Pennsylvania Avenue Property.
The Powhatan Hotel corporation, recently incorporated in Virginia, has taken title to the property at 18th Street and Pennsylvania Avenue northwest known as the Hoy, formerly the Hotel Powhatan, transferred from a Mr. Deike, who purchased from court receivers for $254,100.
The new corporation yesterday placed on record a second mortgage to secure an issue of bonds aggregating $100,000, which are payable in five years, with interest at 6 per cent. The Continental Trust Company is named as trustee in the mortgage.

DIES ON HIS WAY HOME.
John W. Randall, a resident of this city for sixteen years, died suddenly yesterday at Union station while on his way home from work. He had been an employee in the office of the fourth assistant postmaster general during his residence in Washington. He had just left the office where he was working, near Union station, and had gone to the place to get a car when he was taken ill.
Mr. Randall, who was seventy-nine years old, was a brother-in-law of George Ade, the author, having married the daughter of John Ade of Kentland, Ind. Born in Cincinnati, Mr. Rand-
